Join Us for Holiday Events & Services!

Sundays at 10 am Attend on site indoors (much warmer!)

OR online <https://zoom.us/my/cvuusservice/>

Dec 5—Embodied Hope—What if we could express our hopes for a sustainable relationship with Earth in how we decorate some holiday wreaths? Rev. Barnaby thinks we can so we will give it a try in our Sanctuary this Sunday. Join us for some hands-on, hearts filled worship. Plus, we'll throw in a touch of Hannukah. We'll collect for Charter House Coalition for Dec.

Dec 12—Radical Inclusivity—Rev. Barnaby walked into an unusual coffee store on vacation in Charleston, SC, and walked out with the theme for today's sermon. Vote for Radical Love raffle items.

Dec 19—Round the Bend --There's no better Sunday for digging deep into everything we love about orbiting a star together. Led by Rev. Barnaby.

Dec 26—Day After Christmas — Storytelling with Karl and Abi.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

Christmas Eve Service: The Prayer the Nativity Answers, Fri, Dec 24, 7:30 pm—

Led by Rev. Barnaby with special music and readings from the Christmas Story. Ends with lighting candles and singing Silent Night. Attend in person or online via Zoom link above. Donations from the services go to HOPE. The traditional No-rehearsal Pageant planned for online has been cancelled while Poppy Rees, Dir. of Religious Exploration is on leave. Families are invited to have a role in the Christmas Eve service.

Words from Rev. Barnaby

Before writing this monthly letter to you, I snuck a look back. I was curious what I had said to you in past years as we looked forward together to another December. The messages read like a spiritual tug of war. Some years, I was drawn to the Winter Solstice, with its reassurance that the deep Winter ahead leads inevitably to Spring. Others, my mind and heart flowed more toward Christmas. What a compelling vision of how, precariously yet definitely, life unfolds within a Love beyond our full comprehension.

And then there was last year, that unnerving moment when vaccines were just a hope on the horizon but most of us were somehow confident that December, 2020, would be our only December lost to social distancing. I shared with you Maggie Smith's poem How Dark the Beginning, which ended on this hopeful note:

"...We talk so much of light, please let me speak on behalf of the good dark. Let us talk more of how dark the beginning of a day is."

To which I added my own Prayer Because I Love You:

*May the darkness bend toward flower,
Lift from us pandemic's noose,
Sweep away those mad with power,
Wash us clean of Earth abuse,
Winter come, but hour by hour.
Summon angels, let them loose.*

For better or worse, that prayer still seems timely. Maybe there's more to be said, but I will wait for the weeks to come to lead me to the next verse in your company.

Blessed be, Rev. Barnaby

RE THOUGHTS

THE KINDNESS ELVES

We want the holidays to be about being generous, being grateful, being together, and enjoying our family and friends. Our Kids for Kids community service projects have been great but they're only once a month, so here's an idea for something fun and imaginative to do with your kids for the month of December: the Kindness Elves.

Here's how it works: at the start of the month, a few small elves (or plastic dinosaurs, etc.) show up with a note that says "Hello! We're the Kindness Elves/Dinosaurs!" They say that they have heard that the kids are kind and want to see for themselves and will offer some ideas for acts of kindness. Then every morning, they are in a new location with a note that suggests something to do: bake cookies for someone, shovel snow for the neighbors, call a relative just to say hi, clean up someone else's mess, donate an old toy, etc. Sometimes the note mentions an act of kindness that they noticed the kids doing on their own. This idea comes from the imagination tree blog and Facebook page and they have tons of ideas, including printable notes.

The Kindness Elves are fun and a bit magical – a perfect fit for the holiday time. You might like it so much that it becomes a new family tradition! If you do this at home, take pictures and let me know how it went, so that we can share ideas.

May your holidays be filled with love and kindness ~

~ Poppy, your Director of Religious Exploration

Radical Love Giveaway Raffle – 2021 Edition

For our fall fundraiser this year, we created an online version of the Radical Love Giveaway Raffle. Here's how

- OFFER SERVICES & ITEMS: CVUUS members and friends offered services or items to give away up to Dec 3.
- CHOOSE SERVICES & ITEMS: Everyone (adult or child) will get ten virtual tickets to throw into virtual baskets connected with the items that appeal to them until Dec 10.
- WIN SERVICES & ITEMS: For each item, the raffle team will randomly select a winning ticket, and notify the donors and winners after Dec 10.

Where do we contribute to the Giveaway Raffle? Here! <https://cvuus.breezechms.com/form/RADLOVEDonation>

Please contact Priscilla Bremser (bremser@middlebury.edu) or Mary Hadley (hadleyme@juno.com) with and questions.

An Important Reminder: Our unique Giveaway separates Fall Fundraising from fellowship, but while it does away with the traditional auction that favors those who are well off, we still have a budget to balance. If you didn't get around to the extra financial donation before Thanksgiving we solicited, it would be very helpful to get your "Fall Gift" now. Please indicate this on a check mailed to us or through online giving (see page 11 for how).

Social Action Updates

December “Share the Plate” Donees:

Charter House Coalition is a local organization which has been providing housing and meals to the homeless in the Middlebury area since 2005. Over the years, its importance has grown, as has the need. In 2019 Charter House provided almost 40,000 meals to hundreds of individuals and families. It housed 134 men, women and children. In 2020 of the pandemic, Charter House has had to radically change its activities, and is now serving three meals a day to people living in various locations around Middlebury, including its own residents. CVUUS makes dinner for residents (up to 25) on the second Monday of each month and cookies (up to 250) for the community supper on the fourth Friday of each month. It is constantly seeking funding in order to employ the staff and purchase the food and other supplies. CVUUS has always been a generous supporter of Charter House, and with your assistance in December, we will continue to do so. More at chcvt.org

HOPE (Helping Overcome Poverty's Effects) will be our donee for our Christmas Eve service, as before. HOPE is a local non-profit whose mission is to reduce the effects of poverty in Addison County by providing low-income residents with opportunities for becoming more self reliant.

Your support of our often unseen neighbors is greatly appreciated. More at hope-vt.org.

End of Year Message from Donations Ministry

In the spirit of giving thanks, I would like to give a huge shout out to YOU, our members and friends for donating just over $10,000 to our Share-the-Plate recipients through October of this year! We collected for organizations large and small, local and global; your donations helped the environment and several UUA groups; and we supported many different social justice issues, Native Americans, women and children in need, and the arts.

THANK YOU, EVERYONE for your generosity. And I would also like to recognize the members of the donations ministry for their continued input and thoughtful contributions: Barb Karle, Chris Murphy, Ashleigh Hickey, Avi Freund, and Becky Strum; and to Rev. Barnaby for guiding us. While we are a small ministry, we serve a vital role in fulfilling CVUUS' pledge to donate 50% of every collection. Should anyone be interested in learning more about our ministry, even joining it(!), we welcome you to reach out. You can find more information about the Donations Ministry and various Share the Plate donees on the CVUUS website under the Justice tab. Gratefully, Allison Cutler (allisoncutler56@gmail.com) Thanks to all who gave to Honor the Earth last month. Track how much we contributed to them and other donees at cvuus.org/justice/sharing-donation-plate/

Volunteer and Know You Make a Difference with Your CVUUS Teams

Meals on Wheels provides more than just a meal. The friendly visit, safety check and nutritious meal are a lifeline. Age Well, which organizes Meals on Wheels, needs drivers. Delivery is typically 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., week days. Volunteer for a day or to be an occasional substitute driver. CVUUS has a longstanding team on Mondays coordinated by Mary Conlon mcolon@shoreham.net. Contact her. Welcome, Deborah Lewis and Gayle Muenchow!

Charter House Dinner Prep Team We make dinner for Charter House residents (25) every SECOND Monday of month. Right now these are prepped ahead in the homes of volunteers and gathered at CVUUS between 10 am and 1 pm for delivery to Charter House. In addition, we provide baked goods (250 cookies) for Community Dinner on the FOURTH Friday of month. If you want to help, contact Alan Moore alanwmoore1947@gmail.com to get on his email sign up list. See how it works in his google doc sign up here.

Donate items to Neat Repeats, Buy Again Alley, JuneBug, WomenSafe, HOPE and Addison Allies! Let them know you are donating on behalf of CVUUS.

Helen Porter Gift Program: Let Sheila House know if you would like to help with this annual tradition of providing wished-for gifts for up to 16 residents potentially assigned to us by Dec 16 in time for their holiday party.

Tiny House Public Meeting, Sun Dec 5, 12:30 pm, Fellowship Hall Learn how HomesFirst Vermont is making our vision happen! CONSTRUCTION BEGINS JANUARY for our first small, sustainable, beautiful, well-crafted home for a neighbor in need in Middlebury. After much planning and work, Hannaford Career Center is starting construction in January on one of the tiny homes that was drawn by Norwich University's Architecture Department for us. Learn all that has happened since we last spoke with the CVUUS community 2 years ago.

Mexican Consulate Visit 2021: The consulate helped 140 Mexican citizens living in the region with processing 200 legal documents (a record number) on Nov 20. We provided food and drinks, preventative health checks, parking guidance and child care so parents could take care of business and relax. Your support helped to create a wonderful (and organized) event with a festive atmosphere, tamales and all! Thank you! The consulate looks forward to returning in Nov 2022. FROM YOUR CVUUS BOARD

We're about halfway through the 2021-22 church year, and it seems like a good time to let folks know what the Board has been up to, and to celebrate the contributions of various Board members.

First, a shout-out to Priscilla Bremser, who has coordinated completion of the Board's 2021-26 strategic plan, designed to guide the work of CVUUS's Board, Minister and staff, Council of Ministries, and its ministries and teams. The plan reflects much listening and gathering of input from members, staff, and ministries. Look for an announcement soon about how to access it on the church website.

The Board will review the plan annually both to see how we're doing and to include new initiatives or objectives that might arise. Priscilla has done a wonderful job in organizing the plan and improving its clarity and focus. Kudos to her for helping facilitate this important task.

Ann Webster and Mary Hadley have diligently managed the transition in financial oversight as Ann took up the reins as Treasurer this summer. They have also worked together with the Finance and Facilities committees and others to write the strategic plan's crucial Stewardship section. We owe them much thanks for their excellent work in overseeing CVUUS's finances.

Board Secretary Kas Singh has kept us on track by keeping detailed minutes of our monthly conversations, allowing us to pick up the threads and move forward efficiently from month to month with the several tasks on our to-do list. Thanks, Kas!

Kerri Duquette-Hoffman has assumed the role of Board Vice President during the past several months, agreeing—among other duties—to lead the Board's initial preparations for the ministerial transition process as this unfolds over the next few years. We are blessed that this vital task is in such capable hands.

Our newest member, Hannah Sessions, has hit the ground running, doing a superb job in reformulating the Board's Covenant into a powerful declaration of our commitment to the work we do together. Having grown up in the church, she provides a singular perspective on our history and values. She brings a fresh point of view to our work, asking important questions and contributing thoughtful observations to our discussions. We are so lucky to have her.

CVUUS is fortunate to have such a thoughtful, caring, committed, and talented group of Board members to help guide us through these challenging times. It's a pleasure to work with them. I hope you'll join me in thanking them the next time you see one of them. And please share your thoughts with any of us regarding how CVUUS might better achieve its vision of providing a loving, sustainable, and welcoming community in the Champlain Valley.

Doug Richards, Board President
