Our Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

* The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

* Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

* Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations;

* A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

* The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;

* The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

* Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

March Worship Services

Sundays at 10 am Attend onsite OR online

Followed by CVUUS Social Hour

Mar 6—Stewardship Sunday: A Time to Think of Ourselves as Ripples Amplifying Love—Rev. Barnaby and others reflect on the many ways our ministries ripple throughout CVUUS and the wider world. With special music by our Choir and guests Jonathan March on drum and Hans Kindstedt on bass. We’ll share our plate with Planned Parenthood of Middlebury for this month (see p. 6).

Mar 13—Holy Earth Day--Rev. Barnaby offers the first of two reflections on whether Earth Day should rank with the two Christian holidays that shaped our denomination in the 19th Century: Christmas and Easter. What would the equivalent to Advent and Lent in traditional Christianity look like for Earth-centered religion? Let's start today, 40 days before Earth Day 2022. Daylight Savings Time starts - clocks forward!

Mar 20—Holy Earth Day--Rev. Barnaby reflects on the role of today's Spring Equinox in anticipating a truly sacred Earth Day.

Mar 27—Sabbatical: The Vacation Designed by God? Covid permitting, we will celebrate Mud Communion. And we will have time for everyone to put their Sabbatical questions and suggestions to Rev. Barnaby.

Rev. Barnaby on Sabbatical April-June. See special guest worship leaders during this time and about our Spring Canvass “Ripples” and more inside.
A recent Valentine's Day poem posted on Facebook by Rev. Lynn Unger, my favorite living UU poet, depicts her noticing a perfect, back-lit, heart-shaped cloud formation emerging from a larger cumulus cloud. She accepts that the heart she sees is “in the beholder,” not the sky. The Universe is not promising new romance for her. It's true, she says, that "we humans love stories, and finding shapes in vapor pulled by stratospheric winds is the oldest trick in the book." But, she concludes, the decisive question is what's to stop her from “taking to heart” an “unsent gift.”

This is such a spot-on pandemic era poem. The generosity we extend others and ourselves is obviously more necessary than ever. It is also, for many of us, fraught with opportunities for second-guessing. Am I doing this in a safe way? Am I pushing myself too far or not far enough? Have I become so protective, unimaginative, and fearful that I'm losing connections with others that I need to thrive – and help the world to thrive?

In times like these, recognizing and taking to heart the abundant and unpredictable unsent gifts around and within us can be truly life saving. The poem looks at this from the perspective of the individual. But it got me thinking about the same issue in terms of the life of our congregation.

After all, CVUUS has been no less exposed to the pandemic than any of us as individuals. It is well designed to outlive us, but in some ways may be more vulnerable to pandemic damage. It could be, for example, that social distancing has been more threatening to the long-term health of a congregation like ours than to individuals.

That's why I suspect these weeks when we are increasingly meeting again in person before I go on sabbatical may be among the most eventful of my time as your minister. Re-opening with all the wisdom gained from the pandemic and all the obvious needs for a congregation like ours to flourish in Addison County involves a lot more than taking to heart the unseen gifts we encounter. But faith that we are a spiritual family longing to share “unsent gifts” will go a long way to enabling us to joyfully and energetically lean into Love that crosses generational, spiritual, and social boundaries.

Blessed be, Rev. Barnaby

Arrange access to our spaces
Refer people to how to arrange for our spaces here. They are well-ventilated and feature wifi access and gender neutral bathrooms. We adjust the permitted attendance level and masking requirements depending on COVID conditions so ask the Office when you schedule. Watch our online calendar for when we are scheduled and when we are available for your small groups or events.

What Are Your Pronouns?
Celebrate gender identity by designating your pronouns on your name tag. Can’t find yours? Notify the Office, an usher, greeter or Ginny Ashenfelter. Check the Welcome Table basket in our lobby for collected and blank ones. Contact Poppy Rees about CVUUS Our Whole Lives (OWL) which helps youth explore their sexual identity.

Adult Religious See Rev. Barnaby about an orientation to UU and CVUUS history and values as well as our many small groups.

Honoring Indigenous People CVUUS worship opens with a ringing of the bell and saying: "We recognize that CVUUS gathers on the land of the Western Abenaki people. We respect their spiritual relationship to the land. We hope to learn from them how we can live together in peace and justice." See more at cvuus.org/news/honoring-indigenous-people.

May 1—Mark Orten, Middlebury College's Dean of Religious Life, shares insights.

May 8—CVUUS Sangha leads our Buddhist service.

May 15 & 22—Christina Sillari returns to our pulpit.

June 5—Choir Favorites led by music director Ronnie Romano

June 12—Flower Communion

June 19—Juneteenth with Justice Elijah, Caitlin Gildrien & Esther Thomas (NAACP of Rutland members) and others.
Throughout the pandemic, our worship services have been able to fundamentally remain the same. Yes, they had to go online, add videos, figure out tech, go to zoom. The delivery methods had to dramatically change but the structure was able to stay the same: Prelude, Welcome, Call to Worship, music, Time for All Ages, Offering, Milestones and Passages, Meditation, Readings, Sermon/Words, music, Benediction, Postlude. Sometimes not quite like that, but mostly still there, right? And even with that, the changes have meant lots of innovating, extra work, new roles and more.

Our Religious Exploration program has a very different reality. The issue hasn’t just been about needing a different delivery method. Practically everything about it has been and is a question:

- When we start RE for younger kids on March 6, how many kids will come?
- When kids don’t come, is it because the parents don’t feel it’s safe? Or is the actual activity/topic/content not what they want? Or is it not about RE at all and they’re just not going to much of anything?
- Safety – eat snack in RE? Start in the worship service like we used to?
- What might make a family break out of their two years of unscheduled Sunday mornings and come to CVUUS? What can we offer in RE that’s worth that?
- What do kids and families need right now? How can we be of use?
- Does it make sense to focus on what RE used to focus on? Or have our priorities, as a program, as a community, changed? To what?

You get the idea. It’s not like starting a RE program from scratch and slowly building it. But it’s also not like all the people who were involved in RE will return to do what they were doing. Our lives have changed. We have changed. Our priorities. Our sense of safety. Our ability to socialize. What we think our kids need right now. For all of us, it has changed. And for parents with children at home, it has REALLY changed.

We are going to have RE again, for all ages (really grade 6 and down – including Nursery aged kids), on Sunday mornings, starting this month. It will be adaptive – we will adjust to the actual kids who show up. It might be 2. It might be 12. Toddlers or 6th graders. We will do it with the 5 people who have currently offered to help in RE and we will grow.

We don’t know what RE will grow into this Spring. We don’t know who will come. Or what those particular kids will need the most. We don’t know a lot. But we DO know that it will be love-filled. It will be radically inclusive. It will be about holding up the kids in a way that empowers them to love themselves and help make the world better. And there will be snacks. Somehow. REconnect. Hope. Joy. Action. Justice. Community.

And to everyone – I love you. I miss you. I am in this with you (this life).

~ Love, Poppy - your Director of Religious Exploration
Welcome to our 2022-23 Canvass

Creating Ripples to Amplify Love in Our World

What better a time than on the heels of a two-year pandemic to remember the ways that our community exists to love, to comfort, to challenge, and to nurture in a myriad of ways. When we could not worship together our work continued, and our collective efforts were a powerful and reassuring constant, as ripples across a surface.

Our Treasurer, Ann Webster, and the Finance Team are actively working, along with many others, to prepare the annual budget which allows us to fulfill our mission, reach out to the wider community and compensate our staff within the UUA recommended ranges. The goal is to provide a balanced budget for the congregation to approve in June. In order to reach our goal we anticipate seeking Canvass Pledges and Gifts totaling $290,000 to $300,000. These contributions make up 80 to 85% of our total income.

With a goal of simplifying future canvass undertakings, we also ask that you consider making yours a sustaining pledge – as Ann described in the February newsletter. As a sustainer, your pledge would be considered ongoing until you increased or decreased it - not requiring the CVUUS traditional annual pledge canvass process to "lock in" your gift giving in 1 year increments.

When making your pledge we would love for you to provide 3 words summarizing CVUUS. There’s a spot for this on the online pledge form: “CVUUS is to me…”. We’ll collect responses from each of us as the canvass progresses. Let’s celebrate all the ways that the good work of CVUUS ripples through our hearts, our communities, and across generations!

Online pledges are easiest for us to handle and technical assistance can be obtained by emailing Mary at mary@hadleykids.com.
Go to https://cvuus.breezechms.com/form/ripple
For a paper pledge form please reach out to Laura at office@cvuus.org or (802) 388-8080.

Social Action Updates

March “Share the Plate” Donee:
Planned Parenthood of Middlebury

Planned Parenthood of Middlebury works to provide accessible, high quality, and compassionate healthcare to our community. Services include Well Person Check-Ups, STI Screening, Birth Control, Pregnancy Testing, Hormone Therapy, Immunizations, Peer Counseling, and other sexual and reproductive health services and referrals. They offer in house funds through the Access Plan that allows for free, confidential family planning services for those eligible. There is also a sliding fee scale, making services more accessible to lower income folks. Planned Parenthood is a safe and welcoming place to get healthcare and information, no matter your gender or sexual orientation. For more, speak with Ashleigh Hickey or visit plannedparenthood.org/health-center/vermont/middlebury

Thank you for your continued support of Donations Ministry. Thanks to all who gave to our UUA Affiliates last month: Church of Larger Fellowship questformeaning.org, UU RISE (Refugee and Immigrant Services and Education) uurise.org, DRUUMM (Diverse Revolutionary UU Multicultural Ministries) druumm.org and one of our newest congregations All Souls Palatka (Palatka, FL). Track how much we contributed to them and others at cvuus.org/justice/sharing-donation-plate/

Volunteer and Know You Make a Difference with Your CVUUS Teams

Meals on Wheels provides more than just a meal. The friendly visit, safety check and nutritious meal are a lifeline. Age Well, which organizes Meals on Wheels, needs drivers. Delivery is typically 9:30 to 11:30 am, week days. Volunteer for a day or to be an occasional substitute driver. CVUUS has a longstanding team on Mondays coordinated by Mary Conlon. Contact her.

Charter House Dinner Prep Team We make dinner for Charter House residents (25-35) every SECOND Monday of month. Right now these are prepped ahead in the homes of volunteers and gathered at CVUUS between 10 am and 1 pm for delivery to Charter House. In addition, we provide baked goods (250 cookies) for Community Dinner on the FOURTH Friday of month. Contact Alan Moore to get on his list or sign up here.
CVUUS Race In America Book Group on Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents

Meeting 4th Wed of month (Jan through April) 7 PM on Zoom here

Isabel Wilkerson, the Pulitzer Prize-winning, bestselling author of The Warmth of Other Suns examines the unspoken caste system that has shaped a number of countries including the United States and shows how our lives today are still defined by a hierarchy of human divisions. Join the next discussion March 23, even if you missed the first ones! Contact Jean Terwilliger at jtwigvt@gmail.com or Mike Greenwood at mike802vt@comcast.net

CVUUS has conducted other common reads on race including Breath: A Letter to My Sons by Imani Perry last year (Jan -April 2021), White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk About Racism by Robin DiAngelo and Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption by Byron Stevenson in other years. You can borrow a copy of these books and many others on race from the CVUUS Library located on lower level. We offer reading lists here on race. and related topics.

CVUUS conducts annual worship services, workshops and congregational conversations on the related topic of classism toward addressing UU’s proposed “8th” UU Principle: Dismantling Systemic Racism. Thanks to those attended last month’s worship service and congregational conversation on this. More at cvuus.org/news here.
Explore Small Ministry Groups: A Different Way to Do Church

Small Ministry Groups deepen and broaden personal spiritual growth. A group usually consists of 8-10 members who meet monthly. Each meeting is focused on a spiritual or religious topic. To join or form a group, contact Doug Richards (drichard@keuka.edu or 802-989-9387). Or join one of our affinity groups.

Writers Group meets the second Monday of the month at 7:30 pm on cvuus zoom. Contact Bobbi Loney at bobbiloney@gmail.com to be added to list.

UU Cingles gathers for those aged 60+ to provide company and conversation. Meets every other Saturday at 1 pm currently at Middlebury’s Little Seed Coffee (lower level) on Merchants Row. Watch the Blast. For more, call or email Monty Montgomery, Revell Allen or Marjorie Carson.

Music & Choir Come Wednesdays 5:30 pm to the Sanctuary or by Zoom. It is never too late to join. Want to meet with Music Director Ronnie Romano one on one? Contact him at music@cvuus.org or 201-388-4038 to be added to his list. Look for email from choir@cvuus.org. Seeking Instrumentalists! Let Ronnie know if you’d like to play in an upcoming worship or event. Use your instruments or ours! More at cvuus.org/worship/music & choir here.

Native Moons Book Group

Zooming on the Full Moon We’re learn about Abenaki history more deeply monthly until summer at 7 pm by reflecting on Aunt Sarah, Woman of the Dawnland. Led by Liam & Mike Greenwood.

Green Sanctuary Ministry is seeking several people to serve on a new, temporary task force to research and determine the feasibility of purchasing and installing an EV charging station in our parking area. Preliminary research indicates that CVUUS could receive a $750 credit toward the charging station. We’d like to know how many congregants have an EV or plan to get one soon. Contact Elizabeth Golden (802-598-2388) with this and if you are interested in this exciting project or in our Ministry.

The Green Sanctuary Ministry welcomes new members to join in its mission to engage in an ambitious Environmental Justice and Climate Justice movement that seeks to live fully our seventh principle and achieve our vision of a viable and just world for all. Track our efforts at reducing our carbon footprint in response to climate change and environmental stewardship at cvuus.org here.

CVUUS Sangha & Meditation If you’re interested in developing a meditation practice, you’re warmly invited to join us Sunday evenings at 7 pm when Dinah Smith gives guided meditations. It’s aimed at those who are new to meditation or already have a meditation practice. Please feel free to contact Dinah with any questions. Zoom link here.
FROM YOUR CVUUS BOARD  Feeling Brighter

I don’t know about you, but as this winter progresses, things are feeling brighter. Days are already noticeably longer and the light reflects off the snow so even cloudy days don’t seem dreary.

Re-resuming in-person services in February (while continuing Zoom connections too) has felt like a renewed blessing – especially since as a periodic videocaster I get the best of both worlds of being in the sanctuary and visiting with folks on Zoom at the same time.

As an at-large member of your CVUUS Board, while staying somewhat involved with the monetary stewardship of the congregation, I now also have the opportunity to explore other areas of involvement more fully – including ways to see myself and others into the future with the Long Range Plan: CVUUS Plan 2021. I encourage everyone to take a look at the themes, purpose, and goals reflecting on one or two actions you can take with us to move CVUUS forward.

Fulfilling commitments with people I care about is important to me and I look forward to baking and delivering some “off season” rhubarb pies for lucky Radical Love winners this month. I highly recommend Radical Love donors and winners to connect with each other if you haven’t yet – and would love to hear results of interactions via future “yellow cards” in services.

As the Board collectively chairs the Annual Canvass this year, I’m excited to hear from everyone as the Ripple theme rolls-out. Be on the lookout as we ask you for 3 words describing what CVUUS is to you (which we’ll share back collectively to the congregation in a Wordle.)

I blinked my eyes and am now the person who is currently on the Board who has been there the longest – we are always interested in new perspectives and ideas, so if supporting the congregation as a Board member may be in your future – please reach out – we’d love to share more information.

May brightness reign! Mary Hadley

SAFE CONGREGATION TEAM TIPS

PERMISSION REQUIRED TO MEET: Anyone using CVUUS grounds or buildings MUST get clearance and schedule ahead of time with Laura. Contact her in the Office preferably M-F 8-12 office@cvuus.org. In an emergency, when Laura can’t be reached, contact Rev. Barnaby 989-9303.

MEETINGS: We are still limiting attendance levels based on COVID conditions vaccination eligibility for all ages. See here for more about scheduling and renting our environmentally-friendly, award-winning well-ventilated spaces with wifi and media access for multi-platform meetings.

VACCINATION STRONGLY ENCOURAGED: CVUUS encourages all eligible congregants and friends to be fully vaccinated and boosted. Contact our Caring Network if you want a ride to and from or help scheduling your appointment or to be tested or help acquiring a home rapid test kit.

MASKING: Masking required for all CVUUS gatherings inside. Exception: speakers at designated microphones will be strongly encouraged to wear a mask, but not required, while using the mic. We encourage KN95 masks and have them available in the Sanctuary foyer and the metal box right outside the main Fenn House door. Non-CVUUS groups may make their own masking and signing-in decisions.

DISTANCING: Distancing is still a healthy safety measure and should be observed where convenient.

VENTILATION:
- Sanctuary and Fellowship Hall – always turn on the ventilation systems
- Smaller spaces when warm out – open windows
- Smaller spaces when cold out – air purifiers on and windows closed
- Don’t use the ceiling fans in Sanctuary or Fenn House

SINGING: Singers must ALWAYS mask. Our vaccinated and masked choir sings a few songs at most worship services. The congregation, also masked, is invited to sing along with one song near the end of the service.

RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION WITH CHILDREN AND YOUTH: Everyone must mask while inside, except for children 2 and under and people who can’t for some reason and have spoken with the DRE. People working with children and youth must be vaccinated and boosted – the DRE will save a copy of their vaccination card.

ICE/MUD: Please use caution when walking on our paths as weather delivers thaws and rains. We appreciate your effort to clean off or change your footwear to avoid tracking in grit & salt.

CVUUS ZOOM: Ask Laura (388-8080 or office@cvuus.org) how you can request a cvuus zoom meeting. To "claim host" once you are in: Click on your name in “participants” and scroll down below the list of names and click "claim host" and where it asks for the "host key", put in these 6 numbers: 364568. Click claim.
