Arrange access to our spaces

Refer people to how to arrange for our spaces here. They are well-ventilated and feature wifi access and gender inclusive bathrooms. We adjust the permitted attendance level and masking requirements depending on COVID conditions so ask the Office when you schedule. Watch our online calendar for when we are scheduled and when we are available for your small groups or events.

What Are Your Pronouns?

Celebrate gender identity by designating your pronouns on your name tag. Can't find yours? Notify the Office, an usher, greeter or Ginny Ashenfelter. Check the Welcome Table basket in our lobby for collected and blank ones. Contact Poppy Rees about CVUUS Our Whole Lives (OWL) which helps youth explore their sexual identity.

Honoring Indigenous People

CVUUS worship opens with a ringing of the bell and saying: "We recognize that CVUUS gathers on the land of the Western Abenaki people. We respect their spiritual relationship to the land. We hope to learn from them how we can live together in peace and justice." See cvuus.org/news/honoring-indigenous-people.

Looking Ahead to Fall-Winter

Your worship team arranges for a guest worship leader once a month during fall, winter, and spring. Some of the favorite worship leaders are folks from the congregation, sharing their spiritual journey, an area of concern, a subject of expertise, or a way of seeing the world.

Is there a member or friend of the congregation you would like to nominate as a future worship leader? Worship team members can help shape the service with ideas for hymns and readings. We try to make it a not-scary experience. We welcome your nominations! Contact Abi Sessions (349-8147).

WORSHIP SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Worship Team: Help create the service, welcome attendees, make announcements, light our chalice, etc. If you're interested, contact Abi Sessions.

Jean Terwilliger and Mike Greenwood led a common reading of Caste: The Origins of Our Discontent by Isabel Wilkerson earlier this year and one on Breathe: A Letter to My Sons by Imani Perry in early 2021. You can borrow a copy of these and many other books on race from the CVUUS Library. CVUUS has conducted many common reads on race and carries many books including those of this year's UUA General Assembly speaker Ibram X. Kendi. Let them know of future books to discuss.

VERMONT READS 2022

The Most Costly Journey

Much of the work on VT dairy farms is done by people from Latin America. Over a thousand migrant laborers from Mexico and other countries milk cows, fix tractors, shovel manure, and take care of calves in our state.

The Vermont Reads 2022 choice, The Most Costly Journey (El Viaje Más Caro), tells the stories of 19 of these workers in their own words. Illustrated by New England cartoonists in a variety of styles, each short chapter describes aspects of life as an immigrant farm worker in VT: crossing the southern border, struggling with English, adapting to winter, growing gardens, raising children, dealing with health crises, and working long hours.

Mike Greenwood invites us to take part in Vermont Reads 2022 by planning projects centered around The Most Costly Journey and its themes of migration, farming, mental health, cartooning, family, labor movements, and the Latinx experience, among others. See him about your ideas.

Addison County's Open Door Clinic supported this project and displays the book at Mexican Consulate Visits hosted by CVUUS. Stay posted for how you can help with the next one (earlier this year on Sat Oct 29 just before the Day of the Dead—an important holiday) and other migrant worker support.

Social Action Updates

Summer “Share the Plate” Donees

New Community Project (July) Launched in Aug 2003, this small non-profit has a big goal: to change the world. Locally, the New Community Project in Starksboro seeks to impact rural poverty through outreach programs in the Starksboro area. The program is run out of the home and farm of Pete Antos-Ketcham (pictured). Pete describes his role as community organizing or “effecting solutions.” Combined with food that is gleaned from other organizations including HOPE, Middlebury Natural Foods Co-op, Trader Joe’s and others, it provides weekly food deliveries to families and participates in a COVID food relief program for seniors. It also runs a community garden that in 2021 provided 1300 pounds of food. Other areas of focus are heating assistance through a firewood project and environmental education. More here.

Campaign Legal Center (Aug) Given that 2022 is an election year, we picked this non-partisan advocacy and educational nonprofit which advances democracy through law at the federal, state and local levels, fighting for every American’s rights to responsive government and a fair opportunity to participate in and affect the democratic process. The CLC seeks a future in which the American political process is accessible to all citizens, and works at all levels of government to introduce innovative ideas that will drive significant change or set an important legal precedent. Founded in 2002, CLC is committed to democracy (issues such as ethics and public confidence; campaign finance reform; fair redistricting; and equal access to ballots) not a specific political party, and prioritizes engaging and driving action – whether in the courtroom, newsroom or statehouse. For more, see here.

Thank you for your continued support of Donations Ministry. Thanks to all who gave to Addison County Community Trust (ACCT) last month. Track how much we contributed to them and others at cvuus.org/justice/sharing-donation-plate/

Donate items to Neat Repeats, Buy Again Alley, JuneBug, WomenSafe, HOPE and Addison Allies! Let them know you are donating on behalf of CVUUS. Look for the cart in our lobby.

Know You Make a Difference with Your CVUUS Teams

Meals on Wheels provides more than just a meal. Delivery is typically 9:30 to 11:30 am, week days. Volunteer for a day or to be an occasional substitute driver. CVUUS has a longstanding team on Mondays coordinated by Mary Conlon. Contact her.

Charter House Dinner Prep Team We make dinner for residents (25-35) every SECOND Monday of month. In addition, we provide baked goods (250 cookies) for Community Dinner on FOURTH Friday of month. See Alan Moore. Sign up here.

Promote Democracy: Encourage Voting

3 Flipping Things: A local community group, 3 Flipping Things, provides (three) concrete ways to promote democracy each month. You can get involved at home, on your own, but if you want to get out of your home, we will begin meeting monthly on the third Monday of the month at 7 pm on July 18. Join us to write postcards to encourage folks to vote in upcoming elections. Bring stamps, pens, pencils, and markers. We will bring postcards, a script, and a mailing list. There's plenty to do before July 18 (and after). Here's the link for the mailing list <https://3flippingthings.org/connect/> and Facebook group. Gail Borden is CVUUS's rep to the group. Please contact her with any questions.

Campaign Legal Center: Given that 2022 is an election year, CVUUS Donations Ministry has chosen Campaign Legal Center as our August donee. See more on page 5 .

UU the Vote: When we organize, we build power in our communities for justice, accountability, and healing. In the last two years, UU the Vote has built new networks of spiritual and political communities to #VoteLove and #DefeatHate. With UU the Vote 2022 we're organizing on the state and local levels to fight for fair elections, advance voting rights, protect abortion access, and resist the targeting and criminalization of Black, Indigenous, and people of color communities. There is so much at stake in the 2022 midterm elections. Together, our communities can address the current threats to our democracy and human dignity. Download our guide to get started.

- Volunteer with organizations in your area registering new voters, doing early voter drives, or assisting ballot initiatives that advance justice.
- Go door-to-door in your own neighborhood talking to neighbors about what issues matter to them (structure questions to elicit conversation, not just answers).
- Sign up to be an elections monitor in districts with known voter suppression issues
- Send a letter to the editor of your local paper on a ballot question or contested issue you care about. (Use our free guide to make them compelling.)
- Ask your friends if they're registered and urge them to do so if not: UUtheVote.org/register
- Organize a movie or speaker + discussion night, or a non-partisan issue forum at your church. A documentary on voter suppression, for example (ask us for recommendations).
- Organize a Vote Forward effort to engage voters in states with crucial initiatives like above.
