Our Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- * The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- * Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- * Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations;
- * A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- * The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- * The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- * Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Stay for Social Hour in Fellowship Hall

Nov 6—Religion in the Age of Science at the Hospital—Rev. Barnaby considers Porter Hospital is a holy place, where the thresholds of life and death are interwoven every day. Assisted by Becky Strum with our Choir and the House Band. We'll share our offering with Soul Fire Farm for this month. Set clocks back one hour.

Nov 13—Religion in the Age of Science at the Polls and on the Road—Rev. Barnaby talks about what voting and the intersection of Rt. 116 and 17 just south of Starksboro have in common. Assisted by Esther Charlestin.

Nov 20—Quantum Mechanics and the Invisible 8th Principle --

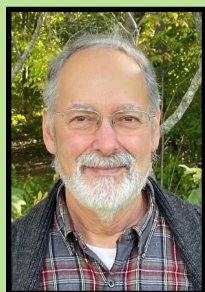

Rev. Barnaby explores black holes and Black Wholes. Can a physics phenomenon he doesn't pretend to fully grasp help us untangle the challenges of dismantling racism? Assisted by Karl Lindholm and honoring Transgender Day of Remembrance.

Nov 27—Essential Skills for Our Times #2 - Decentering—Rev.

Barnaby leads us through the second in his series on tools we need to thrive in this year of transition. Assisted by Abi Sessions.

CVUUS Nov Newsletter

Minister's Letter

As we move through my 11th year as your minister, I remain convinced that Addison County and the world beyond need our congregation to thrive. But what a challenge! We live in a society constantly pushing and pulling us away from congregational life.

As one congregant I haven't seen in worship in a long time told me, "I won't say I'm not coming back. I am not 'not coming back.' But I don't know when it will be possible for us."

I don't second-guess the choices of congregants who say things like this to me. I'm not walking in their shoes. But I miss them. And I wonder how we will thrive without them. I take some comfort in the pre-Covid advice of Rev. Lynn Ungar, shared during 2019 in Quest, the monthly newsletter of the UU Church of the Larger Fellowship, She said, "When we start with wondering, we are never wrong."

Hmm, so let's say the question is, "How will CVUUS serve aging Baby Boomers while attracting many more families?" We have to wonder. Boomers like me faced plenty of upheaval and social conflict as we began raising our families. But I believe we also had more reason to be hopeful about the future. Still, I retain my faith that if we wonder together about this question, we'll end up with abundant ideas to explore.

Here's something else I wonder about. We UU's imagine the Beloved Community we seek as joyful and happy. It also invites us into awe and reverence for what we find in Nature, including human nature at its best. But I wonder how to square that with our call to struggle against the injustices, ugliness, and environmental threats around us. I don't have the answer. The best I can say about this predicament is that it seems to guarantee us choices that matter.

With all this in mind (and heart), I pray the spirit of wonder protects us from the arrogance of dogmatic claims and lazy answers. I pray it leads us away from the slippery slopes of hatred and inflexibility. May it hold us as a powerful spiritual form of gravity, reliably drawing our attention to the many forms of Life-giving Love we may practice. Blessed be, Rev. Barnaby

Button Up for Winter!

Are you a member of CVUUS who qualifies for state or federal low-income programs, or do you know of a neighbor who does? You might be able to get up to 10 free custom-built window insulation inserts through a program run by a charity called Window Dressers. For more information, go here. You can also email the Rotary Club of Middlebury here or contact John Barstow, our liaison to this program at jbarstow@gmail.com. Build kits for others Nov 9-14 at Midd Rec Center.

Welcome to CVUUS!

Arrange access to our spaces

Refer people to how to arrange for our spaces here.

They are well-ventilated and feature wifi access (1BamaDiva!) and gender inclusive bathrooms. We adjust the permitted attendance level and masking requirements depending on COVID conditions so ask the Office when you schedule. Watch our online calendar for when we are scheduled and when we are available for your small groups or events.

Honoring Indigenous People

CVUUS worship opens with a ringing of the bell and saying: "We recognize that CVUUS gathers on the land of the Western Abenaki people. We respect their spiritual relationship to the land. We hope to learn from them how we can live together in peace and justice." See cvuus.org/news/honoring-indigenous-people.

THANKSGIVING: Support the Vermont Abenaki community. Here's a useful article: 9 Ways to Decolonize and Honor Native Peoples on Thanksgiving - culturalsurvival.org and a powerful very short video from Teen Vogue.

CVUUS Race In America Book Group continues with Woke Racism

Acclaimed linguist and award-winning writer John McWhorter argues that an illiberal neoracism, disguised as antiracism, is hurting Black communities and weakening the American social fabric. Our first session generated a lot of discussion, shared experiences of "victimness" and generated soul-searching questions for self-exploration.

Join us for our next session, Wed. Nov 9 at 7 pm in the Ann Ross Fellowship Hall. Zoom option available.

Even if you didn't join us for the first session, you're welcomed at our second session where we'll discuss chapters 3 and 4. If you will be joining us for the first time on Nov 9th, please make sure to contact Jean Terwilliger, jtwigvt@gmail.com or Mike Greenwood at mike802vt@comcast.net for links to additional readings. Hard copies are available upon request. Our final session is Wed. Dec 14th.

What Are Your Pronouns?

Celebrate gender identity by designating your pronouns on your name tag. Can't find yours? Notify the Office, an usher, greeter or Ginny Ashenfelter. Check the Welcome Table basket in our lobby for collected and blank ones. Contact Poppy Rees about CVUUS Our Whole Lives (OWL) which helps youth explore their sexual identity.

Social Action Updates

November "Share the Plate" Donee

Soul Fire Farm is an Afro-Indigenous centered community farm in Petersburg NY committed to uprooting racism and seeding sovereignty in the food system. We raise and distribute life-giving food as a means to end food apartheid. With deep reverence for the land and wisdom of our ancestors, we work to reclaim our collective right to belong to the earth and to have agency in the food system. We bring diverse communities together on this healing land to share skills on sustainable agriculture, natural building, spiritual activism, health, and environmental justice. We are training the next generation of activist-farmers and strengthening the movements for food sovereignty and community self-determination. For more, ask Ash Hickey or visit soulfirefarm.org

Thank you for your continued support of Donations Ministry. Thanks to all who gave to our October donee The Brigid Alliance supporting reproductive rights. Track how much we contributed to them and others at cvuus.org/justice/sharing-donation-plate/

Donate items to Neat Repeats, Buy Again Alley, JuneBug, WomenSafe, HOPE and Addison Allies! Let them know you are donating on behalf of CVUUS. Look for the cart in our lobby.

Volunteer & Know You Make a Difference with Your CVUUS Teams

Meals on Wheels provides more than just a meal. Delivery is typically 9:30 to 11:30 am, week days. Volunteer for a day or to be an occasional substitute driver. CVUUS has a longstanding team on Mondays coordinated by Mary Conlon. Contact her.

Charter House Dinner Prep Team We make dinner for residents (25-35) every SECOND Monday of month. In addition, we provide baked goods (300 cookies) for Community Dinner on FOURTH Friday of month. We look for 6 bakers to make 50 items each. See Alan Moore. Sign up here.

Tri-Valley Transit (TVT) seeks volunteer drivers for the Addison County Dial-A-Ride service. Many county residents, including elderly, disabled and low-income neighbors, need transportation to access healthcare, food and critical services. Volunteer drivers use their own car, with mileage reimbursement provided at the government rate. As a volunteer, you tell TVT how frequently you would like to drive, and who you are comfortable transporting. If interested, call 388-2287 or e-mail abuxton@trivalleytransit.org. See Barbara Merz or Dorothy Mammen for more.

Affordable Housing Conversation

Mon. Nov 28, 7 pm, Ann Ross Fellowship Hall & Zoom

"Housing is absolutely essential to human flourishing.
Without stable shelter, it all falls apart."

Matthew Desmond, author of Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City

Please join us as we begin a conversation on what can we at CVUUS can do to help address the critical need for affordable housing in Addison County. We will brainstorm ideas, develop some action steps and reconvene at a mutually agreeable time. The proposal for this conversation arose from the participants of the Caste (author Isabel Wilkerson) book group. We wondered about appropriations and what could we do and in our brainstorming housing was mentioned and how we took 2 rentals off the market when we repurposed the Fenn House for religious exploration and offices. As Tom Morgan said at that meeting maybe this is our way of addressing reparation. Light refreshments will be served. Please RSVP to Mike at mike802vt@comcast.net Organizers: Scott Barkdoll, Tom Morgan, Jean Terwilliger, Mike Greenwood and 9 other members of Caste book group.

The Ministry for the Future Book Club

Tues. Nov 29, 7 pm, Fellowship Hall

Climate Economy Action Center of Addison County and CVUUS Green Team invite you to discuss Kim Stanley Robinson's acclaimed novel The Ministry for the Future which was described as "masterly" by the New Yorker and of which Bill McKibben wrote, "One hopes that this book is read widely". Our conversation will be facilitated by John Elder, emeritus professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College. In order to allow time for interested folks to read this substantial novel, please let Steve Maier or Mike Roy know if you are interested in coming and also if you would like to be included in a bulk-order for copies of the book through the Vermont Book Shop.

Pictured right: Last month's Environmental Justice panelist Keisha Ram discussed how state and local organizations are making Vermont's Environmental Justice Law a priority. S.148, "An act relating to environmental justice in Vermont," was signed into law on May 31, 2022. Earlier in the month CVUUS hosted CEAC to collect input on its regional climate action plan.

Explore Small Ministry Groups: A Different Way to Do Church

Small Ministry Groups deepen and broaden personal spiritual growth. A group usually consists of 8-10 members who meet monthly. Each meeting is focused on a spiritual or religious topic. To join or form a group, contact Doug Richards (drichard@keuka.edu or 802-989-9387). Or join one of our affinity groups.

Writers Group meets the second Monday of the month at 7 pm on cvuus zoom. All welcome. Contact Bobbi Loney at to be added to list.

UU Cingles gathers for those aged 60+ to provide company and conversation. Meets every other Saturday at 1 pm often at a coffee shop (Stone Mill Patio near Lost Monarch). Watch the Blast. For more, call or email Monty Montgomery, Revell Allen or Marjorie Carson.

Green Sanctuary Ministry welcomes new members to join in its mission to engage in an ambitious Environmental and Climate Justice movement that seeks to live fully our seventh principle and achieve our vision of a viable and just world for all. Watch the Blast for upcoming events. Contact Elizabeth Golden (802-598-2388). Track our efforts here.

CVUUS Sangha & Meditation

You're warmly invited to join us Sunday evenings at 5 pm (earlier!) when Dinah Smith gives guided meditations aimed at those who are new to this or already have a practice. Zoom link here

Music & Choir

Choir rehearses on Thursdays at 5:45 pm (and 9 am before worship on Sundays when they are singing). Contact Music Director Ronnie Romano at music@cvuus.org or 201-388-4038 to be added to his list. Look for email from choir@cvuus.org. Ask him or Carol Harden about joining Music Ministry to plan wider events or if you have a musical instrument you would like to play for worship.

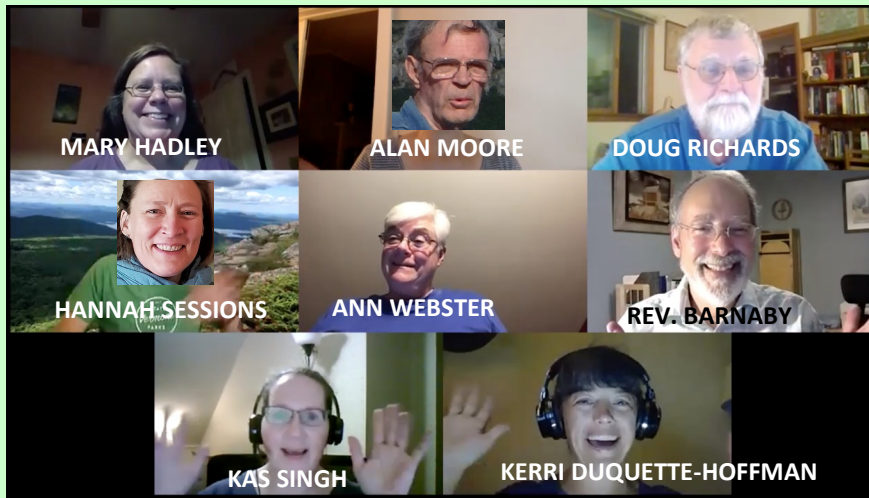

CVUUS Open-Mic Night

Sat. Nov 12, 7–9 pm, Fellowship Hall

Form a trio – play or sing solo– play or sing your favorite tune or a new one that's ready to share with a friendly audience. Or attend and bring a friend to enjoy the performances and light refreshments – Open Mic Night needs an audience, too. Performers of all ages can sign up in Fellowship Hall during Sunday social hours or by email at music@cvuus.org. As a special bonus, if you'd like piano accompaniment, bring your sheet music and House Pianist Ronnie Romano will accompany you. The Music Ministry is happy to be able to host music-sharing gatherings again. This will not be the last one!

Holiday Sing-Along

Tues. Dec. 20, 6:30 pm, Sanctuary
Led by Ana Guigi and Ronnie Romano.

FROM YOUR CVUUS BOARD 2022-2023

The fall foliage is gorgeous and a reminder to me that time does fly. This also means the remaining year of Rev. Barnaby's tenure with CVUUS is going to pass quickly, too. As was referenced in previous newsletters, the theme for this year is CELEBRATION. We want to celebrate and honor Rev. Barnaby's time at CVUUS and celebrate and honor CVUUS from its inception through now. This is an important and necessary part of the process for any congregation that goes through a ministerial change. We must first review and celebrate who we were and are before we can assess who we want to become. Assessing who we want to become will be done via the interim ministerial process. Then we can be better prepared to select a settled minister to help lead us towards our goals as a congregation.

As a reminder of the ministerial process timeline, please review the wonderful graphic explaining the process that Mary H. created. The board has been busy working with UUA and other resources to put into place a strong base for the ministerial transition process to be successful. The Board members, as all CVUUS members and friends do, have the best interests of CVUUS at heart and want us to continue to be successful and grow.

Finally, I would like to end this article with some transparency from the Board. At our Board retreat in August, we came up with 4 main goals to work on this year:

- Creating and implementing the ministerial transition process
- Celebrating the current minister and his tenure at CVUUS
- Focusing on financials with respect to the annual budget
- Checking our Long Range Plan each month as it is a living document

As always, if you have any questions or commentary, please feel free to contact any board members. I wish you a wonderful November! Kas Singh

Have You Discovered Our CVUUS LIBRARY?

New Books! Our newest books are currently shelved, for a bit of time, on the windowsill above the low shelves toward the south end of the blue room on the lower level of the sanctuary. We're seeking new books by CVUUS authors (Michele Lowy and Bobbi Loney), books by Wendell Berry and Anne Lamotte, Bill McKibben's newest book, The Flag, the Cross, and the Station Wagon, and other good books of UU interest. We can also use bookends (book supports), small pencil sharpeners. Overdues: Please return or renew books you've had out for a month. If you've borrowed a book and want to share it with another person, have that person check out the book directly (using the CVUUS barcode on the back) so we know who actually has the book and can clear it from your record. Catalog: There's a link to our library catalog on the CVUUS website under the "Learning" heading. We're happy to locate books for you. Arrange with Office or Artley Wolfson awolfson@middlebury.edu.

CVUUS Author Book Reading Tues. Nov 15, 7 pm, Sanctuary

Vermont Book Shop with CVUUS invites you to readings from the debut works of Michele

Lowy & Bobbi Loney which will be available for sale and are now at Vermont Book Shop. A Small Door follows a Jewish family who flee their home in May 1940 when the Nazis invade Belgium. Jenny's Law tells the story of 12 year old Ruby who is determined to change the gun culture that surrounds her when their way of life is shattered by a shocking gun accident.

Roses to...

...Steve Butterfield who has been setting up his laptop in the Blue Room during Social Hour so that Zoomers can interact with folks who are on site and helps count our offerings.

...Dorothea Langevin who has stepped into many aspects of congregational life, joining Steve in money counting, as well as the expanding choir and donating chairs to our Blue Room for cozy visiting.

...Lise Anderson and Alan Moore with Laura Asermily for coordinating the Mexican Consulate Visit and the many congregants who helped including Rebecca Burton and Mike Small. We counted 150 people at noon happily visiting and enjoying good food. Consulate processed a stunning 120 passports as well as other documents and volunteers of supporting agencies got to see each other's good works and network.

...Karl Lindholm for planning another wonderful All Souls service of reflections on our ancestors including new member Tom Morgan who has joined our worship team.

...Bobbi Loney for coordinating another great Crop Walk fundraising and attendance effort.

...Abi and Bill Sessions and Carol Harden for pitching in on gatekeeping needs.

...Bob House for coordinating our arrangements with Plouffes toward servicing our existing heating system and planning for our future one and many other facilities tasks along with Paul Stone, Miles Peterle, Mitch Kramer, Scott Barkdoll, Jean Terwilliger and Alan Moore.

...Michele Lowy for her steadfast cooking efforts from baked goods for community meals to Abolition Kitchen prep with kids in RE to her Caring Network responses.

CVUUS Seasons of Life Fund

Share your joy or concern with the CVUUS community. Members and friends can commemorate personal milestones and passages through financial gifts to CVUUS that provide extra money for us to fulfill our mission statement. The names of the donors are noted in our monthly newsletter. There is no minimum amount and the size of your donation will not be made public. Please consider the Seasons of Life Fund the next time you—or someone you know—want to honor a birthday, marriage, retirement, anniversary, death, or achievement.

Our Caring Network provides support, such as calls, visits, meals, and rides, to those in need and well as access to KN95 masks or rapid test kits. Please contact Kathryn Schloff (kathrynschloff@gmail.com or 349-5264) to make arrangements or to join her, Michele Lowy, Dale Birdsall, Ted Scheu, Marjorie Carsen, Ginny Ashenfelter and Lynne Balman in this meaningful work. Stay posted on efforts they are making to support us in life passages such as end of life planning and dealing with health conditions like long term COVID and dementia.
