Chalice Lighting (Unison) Abi

May the light of this chalice give light and warmth to our community, when we are joyful and when we despair. And may we feel the warmth spread from our circle to wider and wider circles until all know they belong to the one circle of life.

Champlain Valley Unitarian Universalist Society exists to spiritually nourish, challenge, and sustain people of all ages and circumstances, so that they might lead lives of meaning, integrity, and service.

Pathways to Connection

SPIRITUALITY & THE ARTS FOCUS KICKS OFF THIS SUNDAY

Invite friends to attend our summer services. The services span the arts in the areas of performance both musical and dramatic, writing, gardening, fabric art, painting and crafts. They'll be led by several fellow congregants and some special guests. No zoom and limited recordings for summer services to give our tech team volunteers a much deserved break.

NEXT Sunday July 9: Making Music with Friends Chamber music with Richard Hopkins, Carol Harden and Janie Wulff. Assisted by Martha Fulda, warming us up for Middlebury's Festival on the Green which starts July 9th for the week.

Summer Social Hour: We welcome volunteers to help sustain this over the summer. You can put out or augment snacks and drinks you find in lower level kitchen. We'll need someone to make coffee today if coffee is desired. Our steadfast hospitality guides Mike Greenwood and Alan Moore will not be there for many Sundays. It is fine to opt to offer cold drinks only.

Ronnie's Successor FOUND! With great joy and relief, we are pleased to inform you that Ronnie will NOT be stepping aside after all and stay with us for another year as music director.

Staff on vacation: Office Manager Laura Asermily will be out this week and bookkeeper Cara Mosier will be out the following week for vacations. Dir of Religious Exploration Poppy Rees is on vacation for the summer. While you may see her, please refer any questions about summer coverage to Jess Rouse.

YOU CAN HELP EASE THE HOUSING CRISIS Spread the word among your friends, family and neighbors in Addison County. Housing advocates say that only about 1,000 people in Addison County know about these resources. 1) HomeShare Vermont

Received a recent message about books borrowed from CVUUS library? We're in the process of transferring circulation records from one system to another. The new system sends messages automatically. We're also trying to track down long-ago borrowed materials. If you believe you have returned a book, please take another good look at home. If you can't locate it, let Artley Wolfson know. She'll check library shelves, in hopes of finding it.

Lost and Found: One tap square left in lower level kitchen; several umbrellas, black patterned poncho, plain black rain coat, hihippo rain hat, kid's Slytherin gray t-shirt (for awhile).

Events in CVUUS space are scheduled through the Office. Refer people with questions here. Our meeting spaces are well-ventilated and feature wifi access and gender-inclusive bathrooms. Mary Johnson staff use our parking lot weekdays until 4 pm when we do not have an event requiring those spaces scheduled. Some current rentals not mentioned in coming events above include:

--Al-Anon for families and friends of alcoholics meets weekly on Wednesdays 1:30-2:30 pm in Fenn Chapel – please respect their anonymity needs.

--PEO (Philanthropic Education Organization) meets monthly on 3rd Thursdays at 3:30 pm in Fenn Chapel. CVUUS contact is Anne Christie.
